2010 LITERACY FAIR
International Cultures
Sponsored by Literacy Volunteers of Rochester

This fun event is for anyone who:

- Has thought about teaching someone English
- Is interested in learning English
- Would like to learn more about other cultures

When: Saturday April 10, 2010
10am—2pm

Where: Literacy Volunteers of Rochester

- Entertainment
- Ethnic Food
- Attend tutor info session
- Sign up to become an LVR student
- Displays from local cultural organizations
- Browse our library

Literacy Volunteers of Rochester

Literacy Volunteers of Rochester (LVR) has been recruiting and training volunteers to tutor adults in basic literacy and English since 1964. LVR provides one to one tutoring assistance free of charge to low literate and non-English speaking adults. LVR annually provides English language tutoring to adults from over 20 nations throughout the world.

For more information or if you would like to participate in the Literacy Fair, please call Literacy Volunteers of Rochester at 473-3030.